July, 2022

THE MISSION of Nonviolent Santa Fe is to identify, educate, and encourage healing of the many forms of violence that cause needless suffering in our lives.

THE VISION of Nonviolent Santa Fe is to promote a culture of peace that fosters respect for all individuals, and rejects all forms of violence impacting our community. We welcome all like-minded groups and individuals to collaborate in a united commitment to nonviolence.

Participate:

Tuesday July 12th Alana Grimstad spoke about Tomorrow's Women, whose summer camp for young Israeli and Palestinian women begins this week. The organization brings together 14 young women for three weeks of relationship building, which they carry back with them to the Mideast to continue the work. They can still use your help – see below.

Nonviolent Santa Fe meets monthly for planning and discussion, by zoom. For information, contact Bobb Barnes at bobb@practicepeace.net.

Red Flag Firearm Safety

At our next meeting, Tuesday, August 16, at 4pm on zoom, Sheila Lewis will give a 45 min training on the Extreme Risk Firearms Protection Order – our state's red flag law.

The first meeting is Tues, July 27, at 11am by zoom.

Organizing a strength salon?

We are looking to create a gathering modeled on the "Climate Café," for people to share their anxiety, anger, pain and fear about all the disturbing things that have been happening lately.

If you are interested in helping design and create such a gathering – once or as a series, we are meeting next Tuesday, July 26th at 4pm in person (or by zoom), at the SF New Mexican office, 150 Washington. Contact Jean Darling, jdarding@sandwich.net.
