September, 2022

THE MISSION of Nonviolent Santa Fe is to identify, educate, and encourage healing of the many forms of violence that cause needless suffering in our lives.

THE VISION of Nonviolent Santa Fe is to promote a culture of peace that fosters respect for all individuals, and rejects all forms of violence impacting our community. We welcome all like-minded groups and individuals to collaborate in a united commitment to nonviolence.

Participate:

Our next general meeting is Tuesday, September 6th, 4pm, on zoom. Nonviolent Santa Fe meets monthly for planning and discussion, by zoom. For information, contact Bobb Barnes at bobb@practicepeace.net.

Nonviolence Training

Nonviolent Santa Fe is developing a training program in nonviolence for Santa Fe. The first rollout of the training will take place on Saturday, September 24th, from 2-4pm, at the Advent Life Church, 62 A Van Nu Po, Santa Fe.

The class draws from the book, Engaging Nonviolence: Activating Nonviolent Change in Our Lives and Our World, from <https://paceebene.org/store>.

Pilot for “Hearten Café”

The Hearten Café is a safe space where community members can begin to process their feelings about recent violent events without judgment or argument. We welcome all community members who share a commitment to nonviolence to participate.

The first pilot of the Café will take place one Sunday in October, at 2pm. Watch this space for details.

Nonviolence Action Days 9/21-10/2

Beginning Sept 21, the UN International Day of Peace, through Oct 2, International Day of Nonviolence, the Nonviolent Cities project observes 12 days of nonviolence and encourages local groups like ours to observe one or more of these days. See <https://paceebene.org/action-days>.
