February, 2023

THE MISSION of Nonviolent Santa Fe is to identify, educate, and encourage healing of the many forms of violence that cause needless suffering in our lives.

THE VISION of Nonviolent Santa Fe is to promote a culture of peace that fosters respect for all individuals, and rejects all forms of violence impacting our community.

We will be meeting on the second Tuesday of the month.

Participate:

What is nonviolence? How does all of our work embody its principles?

Join us by zoom at 4pm on Tuesday, February 14, to deepen our discussion of how each of our groups embodies nonviolence, and gain a better understanding of how we can make our community be a model for other places.

If you are not receiving notifications and want to be on the list, please send an email request to news@nonviolentsantafe.org.

Steering Committee

There is a hunger among participants to explore the nature of nonviolence more deeply, to share our feelings about our lives in this work, to express our desires for a peaceful society and how it can be achieved in Santa Fe.

There is also interest in member groups presenting themselves and their agencies as well as discussing why they are active members in NSF.

The NSF Steering Committee meets on the 4th Tuesday at 4pm at 1st Presbyterian Church, and by zoom.

Homeless in Santa Fe

Santa Fe hosted two roundtable discussions with hundreds of participants in the fall to address issues of housing in this city. From that effort, a spin-off is continuing to work with Anchorum and with Project Moxie to begin setting up protected groups of pallet homes. The homes are lockable tiny homes with a bed, to accommodate a person and their stuff, or pet or small family. The idea would include staff or trained volunteers onsite 24-7. A pilot project is being launched.

The state is promising to add to the funds that help, via the Linkages program.

A meeting for volunteers will take place at 4pm, Tuesday, February 7th at Christ Lutheran Church. See <https://s3santafehousinginitiative.org/sos/> for more information

Hearten Café

The team that created the Hearten Café has found it nurturing to those who have attended. We are learning to embody the spirit of non-violence, in this non-judgmental space of peace. Please join us!

Hearten Café meets monthly, the 3rd Thursday of the month. The next Café is February 16, 6pm. Seating is limited, so if you'd like to attend, write heartencafe@nonviolentsantafe.org to let us know you're coming.
